

2020 PCA Club Racing Vintage Group Rules

APPENDIX M – PCA CLUB RACING VINTAGE GROUP RULES

At selected Club Races there may be a Vintage Run Group for eligible cars. Drivers must have a PCA Competition License obtained under the normal Club Racing rules. Cars must have, or acquire at their first event, a regular PCA logbook, which must include the two annual compliance forms. All the applicable safety rules for driver and car equipment apply. All the rules for on-track conduct, including the 13/13 rule, apply.

Eligible models: Only 1989 or older air cooled (356, 911, 912, or 914) Porsches. Year legal 911 tubs, ('89 and older) must have period correct body work. 1989 964's are not eligible.

Drivers of cars with modern bodywork are welcome to apply to compete in the VGTU and VGTO classes. Those cars will be evaluated by the Vintage Competition Committee. Send requests (with photos) to Vintage Coordinator Fred Pfeiffer at fpfeiffer@atlanticbb.net For consideration, these cars at a minimum must have early style front fenders. The later, laid back headlight style will not be allowed.

1. Classes: Based on actual displacement. Displacements listed are hard limits. (I.E. 2.0L is an engine that is 2,000 ccs)
 - V4U for four-cylinder under 2.0L (1,999 ccs)
 - V4O for four-cylinder over 2.0L (2,000 ccs)

 - VU for six-cylinder under 2.4L (2,399 ccs max)
 - VO for six-cylinder over 2.4L (2,400 ccs) to under 3.2L (3,199 ccs max.)

 - VGTU for high winged and or aero bodied (Sheridan, AIR body kits) cars under 3.0L (2,999 ccs Max.)
 - VGTO for high winged and or aero bodied (Sheridan, AIR body kits) cars over 3.0L (3,000 ccs) as well as all cars with an engine displacement of 3.2L (3,200 ccs) and higher.
All turbocharged and supercharged cars will run in VGTO.
2. Performance: Air cooled engine displacement is open, subject to the six class criteria. Cars must, at a minimum, be eligible to run in PCA Club Racing.
3. Tires are free.
4. Practice and Sprint Run groups: The Vintage Group will run in separate, Vintage only, sessions. Races will be 30 minutes or less.
5. National Championship points are not available for Vintage Group races.

Questions about classing or other rules should be directed to Vintage Coordinator Fred Pfeiffer at: fpfeiffer@atlanticbb.net or 301-707-9472.
